furniture, and an annuity of fifty Dollars from my son, Superior Goodner, also one Cow and Calf,

Second Item: I, in former times, having given to my daughter Malinda Stilwell Lands (as can be seen on the record of the County Court of Madison County, Ala.), and other property amounting to more than I can give to my other Children in this my last Will and testament, I therefore Give her nothing.

Third Item: Having given to my daughter Eliza Burnice, wife of John H. Harper, a House (or "horse") and other property, I here add a Cow and Calf, and to John H. Harper, her husband, two hundred and eighty-five dollars to be paid to him by my son, Superior Goodner, the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and fifty and with interest from the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine.

Fourth Item: I give to my daughter Martha Thompson, my best, horse, and cow, one Bed, Stand, and furniture, and two hundred and eighty-five dollars to be paid by my son, Superior Goodner, the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, with interest from the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine.

Fifth Item: I give to my son, Superior Goodner, who is equally interested with me in stock and trade, and whom I hereby appoint to be the Executor of this my last Will and testament, all my portion of the stock of hides, Leather, Tanning Tools thereof, and any article and Species of property belonging to the firm of D & S Goodner, I also give him all my individual property not disposed of in the former Items, including personal and real estate, except the lot disposed of in the first item for the benefit of my wife, which is to belong to him at her death, or when she ceases to occupy it as a home. Before making this my last Will and testament I made a schedule of my Property and debts and believing that my debts came so high covering my property that an executor could not pay them at the present moment of prices with it in executing this Will without more time than is usually given to Executors in the Execution of Wills; and my son, Superior, being equally bound with myself for the payment of most of my debts, I have in the fifth Item of my Will given to him more than I have given to my other children which greater amount I believe to be necessary to enable him to pay all my debts, and the unusual time I have given him in some of the Items of the Will is to make the most of the property he can and to accomplish this most important of all objects the payment of all my debts; in witness "hereof" I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal in the presence of the subscribing witnesses this the fifteenth day of June A. D. one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight.

One interlineation and a slight alteration of five words before signing.
